

VOLUME DAMPER

Application

The Volume Damper design have a variety applications in air and material volume control systems. Mostly application is to control the volume of air flow in the ducting system by adjusting the dampers.

Technical Information

Dampers are design and fabricated with capabilities to meet the all special requirements. The dampers open and closed by manual adjust or by motorized with known as MOTORIZED DAMPER.

Construction

The Frame and Blades using mild steel with thickness 1.2 mm with zinchromate finished. And also available in other material like Stainless Steel, Galvanized Steel and Aluminium.